2. Objectives

- To explore what we mean by Christian Stewardship as an outworking of our discipleship
- To provide some thoughts for personal discipleship – particularly in relation to the stewardship of our resources
- To provide some emphasis on how to be an effective Stewardship Promoter and be aware of resources that can help a parish.

3. What others have said

- “The course was fast paced, interesting and delivered with humour. The evening flew by”. – Debbie Sparks, Sway
- “Ideally every Christian should attend this course, but it is a must for all PCC members, not just Churchwardens, Treasurers and Stewardship promoters”. – Humphrey Carr, Ropley
- “This was a hugely enjoyable participative workshop full of relevant information for effective stewardship ably and enthusiastically presented”. – Jim Rooke, Chandlers Ford
- “Stimulating and inspiring, with lots of ideas and resources”. – Robin Lees, Alton
- “The course was fun and provided inspiration for those responsible for stewardship in the parish. There was a wealth of information and more importantly it provided leads to further helpful information tailored to the needs of different parishes; a very worthwhile evening in a most congenial atmosphere” – Tony Hall, Heckfield, Mattingley and Rotherwick
