ST MELLITUS COLLEGE

St Mellitus College is one of the most exciting and innovative centres of theological study and training for missional leadership in the UK today. Having emerged from a partnership between Holy Trinity Brompton and the Dioceses of London and Chelmsford in 2007, St Mellitus has grown rapidly to become one of the largest theological training centres in the UK. Reflecting its broad roots, St Mellitus emphasises the importance of a generous orthodoxy, working with all kinds of Christians and denominations in order to see the Holy Spirit’s transforming power at work in the church and the world.

WORLD CLASS THEOLOGY IN SOUTHAMPTON

Here in Southampton, we will be streaming two modules from the first year of the St Mellitus BA course in ‘Theology, Ministry & Mission’ (which is part of the Church of England’s Common Awards program) – delivered by a wide range of world-class scholars, first-rate practitioners and visiting professors. This exciting course will help Christians of all stages of life to explore their faith more deeply - while preparing students for leadership in ministry or mission, equipping those who want to pioneer new churches, and offering a challenge to explore how the church can adapt to a fast-changing world. By offering this course locally, unassessed and as inexpensively as possible, we hope to make this high quality training in theology and missional leadership accessible to anyone who really wants to explore what it means to follow Jesus in the world today.

"Studying at St Mellitus has been a real gift for me. The
